Canberra Quilters Inc.

Canberra Quilters Inc. was formed in June 1976. Our aims and objectives are to:

- promote the art of patchwork and quilting in Canberra
- bring together people interested in patchwork and quilting
- encourage and maintain high standards of workmanship and design in both traditional and contemporary patchwork and quilting
- organise exhibitions
- publish a newsletter

Meetings

Meetings are conducted in our premises at the Cook Community Hub in Templeton Street, Cook and are held on the:

- first Thursday of each month, February to December, from 7.30 p.m.
- third Wednesday of each month, from 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.
- fourth Friday of each month, from 10.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m.

Visitors are always welcome.

For the many activities outside these regular meetings, please consult our website.

Membership

Membership is calculated annually by calendar year (1 January to 31 December). For 2018 it is:

- adult $60

Sales Room

Canberra Quilters established its Sales Room in response to visitors' requests to be able to purchase high quality handmade items at the Exhibition. Our members have worked hard all year to make almost 5000 items from which you can select. You will find an exciting array of items from Christmas decorations and doorstops to cushions and quilts to delight you. Make a visit to our unique and highly successful Sales Room a priority.

Quilts for Others

Canberra Quilters' Quilts for Others group has been making quilts for distribution to Canberra charities since 2000. Over 17 years, we have made and distributed over 4000 quilts to local charities. As well, the group volunteers more time to demonstrate how we make quilts so visit the Quilts for Others area to watch and ask questions, to be intrigued and inspired. Thanks to MiniJumbuk for their generous donation of batting and to BERNINA for lending machines.

Judge

We are very happy to have Jan Foster judge our quilts for this year's exhibition. Jan lives on the beautiful Central Coast of NSW and is a former Visual Arts Teacher. For the past 15 years she has poured her creativity into longarm quilting. Jan uses a hand guided Gammill for most of her custom quilting and a computerised Gammill to complete edge to edge quilts.

She loves completing customers quilts as well as her own, and particularly likes the texture and pattern that the quilting design brings to a quilt top. She also enjoys teaching domestic machine quilting and feels a great sense of satisfaction being able to pass on her knowledge to quilters who are passionate about completing their own work all by themselves.

Jan has judged several regional quilting shows and participated in QuiltNSW Judges Education Program. In 2017 she was part of the judging team for the Sydney Quilt Show.

Category 1 – Large Quilts (non-professional)

2	Gwen Bates	X Marks the Spot Gwen's quilt was inspired by a block called 'Tic Tac Toe', from Alyce Blythe's website, Blossom Heart Quilts . She enjoyed the contrast of low-volume fabric background with high-volume crosses. This quilt took about a month to make.	153 x 153 cm
3	Gwen Bates	On Point Gwen based her quilt on an Angela Walters pattern seen on You Tube's, The Midnight Quilt Show . Using a jelly roll from her stash and crisp white fabric she completed the quilt in around two weeks, Gwen quilted it herself on a Sweet Sixteen machine.	196 x 180 cm
4	Ian Brown	Mosaic This original quilt was inspired by Ian's memories of Roman mosaic floors seen in archaeological sites in Constanta, Romania and Köln (Cologne), Germany. Ian's design shows the encroachment of time and the consequent destruction of the mosaic pattern, leaving us with a partial picture of the opulence of the original design.	189 x 138 cm
5	Valetta Buker	Purple People-eater Windows Valetta was challenged by a friend to sew curves. Inspired by modern quilting, she used the Drunkard's Path design to offset bold colours with paisley prints to form window patterns, which she then machine quilted. Her husband thought it looked like the windows the Purple People-eater used to find the next big rock band!	204 x 145 cm
6	Virginia Buring	This Little Pig went to Market Virginia's quilt is a random collation of blocks from the book, 200 Quilt Blocks to Mix and Match , by Davinia Thomas. It is for her daughter, who asked for it to be in ochre colours, but "could it please include the grey pigs." Therein lay the challenge.	169 x 155 cm
7	Jakki Cashman	P482015 When challenged in 2015 to complete one block a week over 48 weeks, by Linden Vine and Crystal McGann, Jakki decided to add a few conditions: use the ugly fabrics, repeat one fabric from each block to the next - voila! (completed 27 July 2018)	213 x 168 cm
8	Quilt withdrawn
9	Margaret Donaldson	Walk this Land together Margaret has dedicated this quilt to the Reconciliation process and the invitation from our Aboriginal Torres Strait Islander friends to walk side by side with them through this land. The Brindabellas have a long history, so let us walk together and share the beauty and richness of this ancient land.	221 x 157 cm
10	Desley Ferguson	Compass Desley saw this block pattern on a torn-out page from Downunder Quilts of winter 1996. She liked the look of it and decided to try it. After making the templates and one block, she kept going. This is the result.	180 x 150 cm
11	Desley Ferguson	The Sorcerer's Apprentice Desley based her quilt on a Georgette Dell'Orco design in Strip Clubbing , by Cozy Quilt Designs. The quilt kept getting larger, and Desley had difficulty in halting its growth, hence the name.	223 x 186 cm
12	Michelle Ford	The Geisha Michelle based her fabric selection on the feature red fabric by Quiltgate, complementing it with ornate gold and patterned oriental fabrics. The pattern is from a class with Leesa Chandler, predominantly hand appliquéd, with many 3-D effects within the quilt. Quilted on a domestic machine using a quilt-as-you-go method.	182 x 134 cm

13	Merrilyn Haren	The Waters of the Barrier Reef Merrilyn's son, who lives in Texas USA, requested "The Waters of the Barrier Reef" and so the journey began. Merrilyn designed it, made patterns and sourced the fabrics – batiks were the perfect choice. Representations of coral and sea life were added as interest. She used hand appliqué, machine piecing and machine quilting to finish her quilt.	196 x 201 cm
14	Lesley Hodgson	Tussey Mussey The design for this quilt was published in Quilts in Italy , by Kaffe Fassett in 2016. It uses fat quarters selected from Lesley's large stash.	153 x 153 cm
15	Lesley Hodgson	Diamond Mosaic Lesley began this quilt in a class with Kaffe Fassett. The design is in his book, Quilts in Ireland , published in 2017.	158 x 140 cm
16	Alex Hunter	Under the Rainbow Using vibrant fabric she hand-dyed with Procion dyes in a CQ workshop with Mary Kennedy, Alex designed this flowing 20-colour chequerboard rainbow. The quilt is backed with complementary fabric from a recycled doona cover. It was inspired by 'Rainbow Connection', from Better Homes and Gardens Simply Sewing and Quilting Volume 1.	163 x 121 cm
17	Janet Inglis	Tribute to Mother This quilt was started in 2014 and completed in 2017. It is the first quilt Janet started - in a class making a sampler quilt for a single bed. She added three more blocks to make in a queen size quilt. Nine blocks came from the patchwork class, two from the internet (creator unknown) and the middle block in the second row was designed by Janet.	190 x 152 cm
18	Pat Kenna	Quilt moved to Category 8
19	Jill Kennedy	Le Jardins Jill developed this quilt during Rowmakers 2016. The chosen method was 'quilt-as-you-go'. Three ingredients were selected each month to create individual square blocks, which were then assembled into a quilt. The layout was influenced by a quilt Jill saw in Quilters' Companion magazine.	173 x 149 cm
20	Mary Kennedy	Crossroads Drawing on her extensive stash, Mary made this quilt for her grandson, from a pattern in Simply Moderne , called 'Sew Vintage'. The grid made by the sashing and bright crosses on the blocks overlaying the circles has a map-like appearance that inspired Mary to quilt compass points on the blocks.	194 x 193 cm
21	Gwen Leonard	Borokiruto The pattern for Gwen's quilt was featured in an Australian quilting magazine and was made using Japanese fabrics. 'Burokiruto' is Japanese for 'blue quilt'. It was hand stitched and machine quilted by Gwen.	160 x 160 cm
22	Andrea McMillan	Old Fashion Remedy While Andrea was off work on stress leave last year, she came to daytime drop-in sessions as 'therapy' and played with fabric scraps from the "free-to-a-good-home" bucket. This quilt was one of those experiments – put aside, then finished this year.	128 x 195 cm
23	Pam McNamara	Adwill Leaves Pam's big quilt follows a Julie Wallace pattern. The leaves were machine appliquéd onto pre-quilted blocks. The blocks were then machine quilted by Pam.	287 x 241 cm

24	Yvonne Mercer	1718 Coverlet Yvonne made this quilt as a memorial for her mother, using the book, 1718 Coverlet , by Susan Briscoe. Choosing fabrics and stitching the blocks gave time for reflection, grieving and celebrating her mother's life and memories. "She believed she could, so she did."	195 x 170 cm
25	Valerie Merritt	Secondary Design Valerie developed the idea for this quilt from a picture in a magazine. She used the free space in the quilt to create secondary designs.	161 x 138 cm
26	Clementine O'Sullivan	Wanderlust Having seen this quilt pattern in a magazine, Clementine was drawn to the clever rainbow pattern and use of negative space. The negative space then became her playground for some 'improv' free-motion quilting.	156 x 168 cm
27	Clementine O'Sullivan	Butterfly Clementine loved the Tula Pink Butterfly design the second she first saw it and enjoyed creating this rainbow version from Tula Pink fabrics. It was a study in organisation, with all the various blocks, but Clementine enjoyed making and quilting it over many weeks.	212 x 229 cm
28	Kay Provins	Long Time gone, around the Corner Kay started enjoying Jen Kingwell's quirky stash-busting quilt patterns and decided to have a go. She completed the quilt but made no dint in her stash.	164 x 164 cm
29	Julie Ricketts	Geopatch Julie got the idea for this quilt from a painting in a shop. She has a liking for half-square triangles, so this is how Geopatch started. The blocks are made from five-inch squares of different blues and white. Julie used different directions for the colour placement.	226 x 218 cm
30	Judith Robinson-Whitty	Breeding Plumage Judy was inspired by the techniques learned in a Wendy Williams workshop, 'Pick of the Bunch'. These mythical birds lent themselves to the vibrant colours of the wool felt. It was hand-quilted in a variety of colours of perle thread. The background was a sample pack of wool, merino and cashmere suiting fabrics.	163 x 117 cm
31	Kris Rolag	Glorious Hexie Kris based this quilt on Katja Marek's book, The New Hexagon Quilt . The musical-themed backing fabric was the inspiration for colour selection. Many of the blocks were made while sitting in the front room gazing out the window.	178 x 136 cm
32	Helen Rose	I Spy Lachlan Pye The colourful robot quilt on display at the Sydney Quilt Show attracted Helen to this Kellie Wulfsohn design. The techniques used are raw edge appliqué and some trapunto. It was machine sewn and quilted by Helen for her grandson, Lachlan.	202 x 158 cm
33	Elizabeth Scroope	Animals of the Forest Elizabeth made this quilt for her grandson, based on 'Forest Fancy', a pattern by the very talented Elizabeth Hartman. It is machine pieced, which was very challenging at times, and free motion quilted.	229 x 168 cm
34	Nicole Shipway	Agatha When Nicole first spotted the 'flowering snowball' block in a quilt, she was smitten. Those interlocking circles really caught her eye and she knew it was the perfect project to invest her growing Anna Maria Horner fabric stash. So, Agatha, a quilt for beauty and joy, was born.	205 x 174 cm

35	Jan Smith	The Dress Jan sewed, and free motion quilted this lovely pattern, 'The Dress', designed by Laura Heine.	181 x 122 cm
36	Maureen Tolley	Quilt moved to Category 8
37	Elizabeth Taverner	Let's Dance Elizabeth was attracted by the exuberance of this bargello design by Chris Timmins. She chose Japanese fabrics and simple straight-line quilting. The swirling pattern invites one to dance.	195 x 190 cm
38	Josie White	Starry, Starry Night Josie made this quilt from a batik jelly-roll plus. Its intended recipient is a keen gardener, bird-watcher and lives on the South Australian coast. Décor in his house is blues and greys.	163 x 127 cm
39	Josie White	Quilt moved to Category 8
61	Jan Hastings	Lost in Translation Jan made this quilt for her daughter and son-in-law for their first wedding anniversary. She started it on a course at the Village Quilt Shop in Mittagong.	160 x 159 cm
70	Julie Ricketts	Snowy Day Julie joined a Facebook group challenge: NQCQuilt block challenge, which started in 2017. Julie started and finished the top this February and completed the quilt in June. The colours are bright and different to the blues, greens and brown earthy tones Julie usually uses.	182 x 138 cm
118	Kathryn Doyle Hailey	The Big Bang – What really happened Kathryn obtained the centre panel and thought about the day the universe exploded – into bright colours and flowers. This quilt took on a life of its own at the 2017 Canberra Quilters retreat. It was machine pieced and quilted with joy.	157 x 142 cm

Category 2 – Large Quilts (professional)

40	Joanne Barraclough	Starry Sample This quilt has been several years in the making. The blocks and setting idea are based on Judy Martin's, The Block Book , 1998. The blocks are rotary cut and machine pieced, and the work was quilted by Joanne on a domestic sewing machine.	238 x 234 cm
41	Raylee Bielenberg	The Emerald City This quilt consists of blocks made during the #100days100blocks2017 event. All city sampler blocks from Tula Pink's book, all made in various shades of green. A yellow brick road passes through the city blocks. Made and quilted by Raylee.	159 x 171 cm
43	Jenny Bowker	Christmas Night Shining Bright Christmas baubles hanging against a night sky – Jenny played with an altered kaleidoscope block to create the design.	240 x 218 cm

44	Sylvia Clough	Wonky Love Sylvia's quilt is all about how Love is rarely perfect but Wonky Love can become perfect Love. It is from a Wendy Williams pattern, 'Pieces of my Heart'. The heart has been improv pieced with various widths of fabric strips, then appliquéd onto a low volume background that was also improv pieced and pre-quilted.	171 x 171 cm
45	Jenny Cook	Blue and White Sampler Jenny modified and adapted Sue Daley's Antique Sampler design to create an exciting quilt using her favourite techniques of needleturn appliqué and English Paper Piecing. She was out of her comfort zone when she machine quilted it in nine sections, before assembling the whole.	182 x 183 cm
46	Jenny Cook	Woodland Creatures Jenny was hugely inspired by the Facebook group of thousands of people making Willyne Hammerstein's, La Passacaglia quilt. Fussy cutting features many creatures – kangaroos to crickets. It is English Paper Pieced and quilted by hand. Jenny added her own spin on the borders, with needleturn appliqué.	240 x 223 cm
47	Ann Haddad	The Spice Market Ann was inspired for this quilt by a design in the book, Traditions with a Twist , using alternative nine-patch blocks and plain squares. It was machine pieced and machine quilted by Ann.	163 x 165 cm
48	No quilt entered
49	Beth & Trevor Reid	Blurring the Edges Trevor's diagnosis of cataracts inspired this design, with blurred edges of objects and diffusion of lights as the condition takes effect. Utilising fabrics collected over the years to produce a quilt with a spectrum of colour and light. All cotton fabric, wool-polyester batting, machine quilted and manipulated machine embroidery stitch.	180 x 180 cm
50	Elizabeth Rose	Citrus City Sampler Elizabeth made the top as part of the #100days100blocks Instagram sew-along. She used Tula Pink's City Sampler book for the blocks with traditional set and original border. Elizabeth chose citrus colours with grey, black and white to give a fresh look.	207 x 208 cm
51	Yvonne Williams	It started with a Star The four corner blocks of Yvonne's quilt make a star, used in the first row of stars. The following rows were made by rotating the four parts of the stars into different patterns. Yvonne found it interesting to see the resulting patterns evolve.	194 x 144 cm
190	Therese Rankmore	Sisters Therese made this quilt using fabrics purchased in Japan by her sisters, Annette and Sue. With seven fabrics in hand and curves in mind, Therese worked from one corner, alternating light and dark with the strips. She then enhanced the design with curved quilting.	203 x 202 cm

Category 3 – Small Quilts (non-professional)

52	Christine Barnicoat	Crann Bethadg (Tree of Life) The Tree of Life motif exists in many cultures. This interpretation uses Celtic-style commercially available stencils. Batik fabrics allow for changes in leaf colour. Machine appliqué and free motion quilting finish off the work.	95 x 95 cm
----	---------------------	--	-------------------

53	Barbara Brown	Music for Lovebirds Barbara was inspired by a folder of patterns by Becky Goldsmith and Linda Jenkins called My Whimsical Quilt Garden , that was given to her by a quilting friend for her 70 th birthday. As her first attempt at both needle turn and hand-quilting, she decided to make a quilt for her daughter and son-in-law.	135 x 135 cm
54	Christine Butt	Sunshine Friendship This was an easy quilt to make using scraps from Christine's friendship group. It was inspired by a photo found on Pinterest.	150 x 130 cm
55	Julia Dawson	Memories of Mum Julia's mother collected tea pots, and these embroidery designs from Kreation by Kara evoked memories of her mother. Techniques used are in-the-hoop appliqué and hand embroidery.	98 x 98 cm
56	Margaret Donaldson	Golden Sun Japanese fabrics make up the basis of this little quilt. It's a rich and happy little quilt, with sparkling hexagons to make you smile.	111 x 111 cm
57	Patrise Dowling	Elephants on Parade Patrise constructed this quilt using a pattern from Quiltmania magazine (Issue 118), choosing bright batik fabrics and finishing with Kantha-style hand quilting using #8 pearl thread.	141 x 115 cm
58	Michelle Ford	Moonlight Sonata Using Hoffman dot batiks together with the golden background radiating print, created the luminous effect Michelle desired. She finished it with free form feathers all done on a domestic machine, using fusible appliqué techniques. Kit and pattern by Joanne Hoffman.	109 x 101 cm
59	Michelle Ford	Colour Burst Inspired by the designs of Freida Anderson, Michelle used her favourite gradation fabrics, a little trapunto on the leaves to make them pop, free-motion quilting and a scrappy border from leftovers, all finished on a domestic machine.	69 x 47 cm
60	Louise Fredericks	Race Day Ladies Louise used "Ladies in Line", from Kreation by Kara, to embroider the small quilts, which were then embellished, edged and attached to the larger silk quilt. The large quilt was stitched with variegated thread and buttons. All were bound in the same braid and fabric.	111 x 102 cm
61	Jan Hastings	Quilt moved to Category 1
62	Jan Hastings	Hinamatsuri This quilt was made from a Susan Claire pattern. Jan made it for her granddaughter, Remedios Lyna Aiko, who is two years old. Remedios loves everything Japanese. 'Hinamatsuri' means Doll's Day, or Girl's Day and is celebrated on the 3rd of March each year.	113 x 84 cm
63	Alison Kime	Ode to Gwen Alison created this small piece from a desire to make something using triangles as the focus. It was inspired by the many wonderful quilts designed by Gwen Marston and features a combination of hand stitching and machine quilting. It proves that something good can come from an earlier project failure that you feel you can't make work at all. Quotes are from artist Louise Bourgeois.	69 x 89 cm

64	Andrea McMillan	Deep and Meaningful Purple Thoughts Machine quilted, then hand stitched between the lines, the title of this quilt means many things: Andrea likes playing with words and playing with fabric, threads, and colours. Both of those things are good 'therapy' for someone whose crazy creative mind never seems to stop and is usually thinking too fast/too much.	39 x 49 cm
65	Andrea McMillan	Disordered At a CQ sew-in, Andrea saw people looking at #crosscutquiltalong (from aquilterstable.blogspot.com) on Instagram and made her own version with some fabric she had with her. Like Andrea, this quilt is not perfect, but it is what it is.	75 x 75 cm
66	Valerie Merritt	Windows on Bali Valerie constructed this quilt using a pattern purchased from Wacky Jacky and quilted it herself on her home sewing machine.	141 x 145 cm
67	Anne Meuronen	Playtime with Lucy Having been bitten by the EPP (English Paper Piecing) bug, Anne decided to have a play with Lucy Boston blocks, using a charm pack of fabrics that had been sitting in her cupboard. Hand and machine pieced and hand quilted.	90 x 90 cm
68	Colleen Reed	Spring Folk Art Scene Colleen was keen to explore appliqué with embroidery combined in one project. It took many hours to finish the twelve pieces and combine them to complete the design. It is a variation on a pattern by Ananda.	39 x 75 cm
69	Colleen Reed	Dove of Peace Colleen has a love of leadlight and this quilt has been embroidered ten percent larger than the original design by BFC Machine Embroidery Designs. Doves have represented peace for many centuries. The twelve individual pieces were carefully abutted and completed using wide satin stitch.	104 x 53 cm
70	Julie Ricketts	Quilt moved to Category 1
71	Kris Rollag	She was loved 1 Kris felt the fabric was too gorgeous to cut up, so she used three sections for the background. By adding raw edge appliqué shapes, she enhanced the fabric in a Rex Ray inspired manner. This is the first in a series of three. Notice how the scribble quilting follows the flow of colour.	103 x 68 cm
72	Kris Rollag	She was loved 2 Description is the same as for the previous entry	102 x 73 cm
73	Christine Stewart	Hello, Bear Inspired by a quilt in an early issue of Patchwork and Stitching magazine, Christine had fun making Bear and selecting the I Spy fabrics. She made the quilt for a friend's new baby girl.	100 x 107 cm
74	Pamela Strickland	Never Enough Orange Pam loves orange and this quilt enhances the feature colour of orange in her décor. A good friend, Judy, gave Pam two packs of fabric for birthdays, which enabled Pam to make her first quilt for 24 years, for herself.	120 x 120 cm
75	Donna Sunderland	Congratulations Donna made this quilt for a special friend, using batik fabric made in Bali.	135 x 105 cm

152	Beverly Kavanagh	Blue Jelly Beverley challenged herself to use only the blue material she had in her fabric stash. She succeeded and even had some left over!	68 x 47 cm
158	Anne Meuronen	You said, "Turn Left"!! Anne decided to play with flying geese blocks for the first time. Machine pieced and hand quilted.	68 x 48 cm
170	Donna Sunderland	Evie's Effelants Donna adapted a picture in Love Scrap Quilting, a design by Jen Eskridge. Her friend Evie collects elephant items. Free motion quilting by Donna.	45 x 68 cm

Category 4 – Small Quilts (professional)

76	Raylee Bielenberg	Wise Words This quote has been one of Raylee's favourites since she first read it in the Laura Ingalls Wilder series, in late primary school. Ma Ingalls was a very wise woman. Raylee's own design, which she pieced and quilted. The quilt was made as a response to a challenge theme - The Power of 5. Foundation paper pieced letters, using letter patterns by Paper Panache.	133 x 78 cm
77	Sylvia Clough	Copy of a Masterpiece Sylvia was fortunate to attend a workshop on hand stitching with fabric and pattern designer, Anna Maria Horner. It covered needle-turn appliqué, Kantha stitching, Japanese Boro stitching and embroidery, and how these techniques add dimension to quilts. One of the sample quilts made by Anna Maria Horner was exquisite, a true 'masterpiece' that Sylvia felt had to be copied.	150 x 150 cm
78	Jenny Cook	Template Lesson Jenny started this wall hanging quilt in Beth and Trevor Reid's template making (and using) class in Ulladulla in 2017. It is made with raw edge machine appliqué and machine quilting.	143 x 59 cm
79	Charmian Corbett	Elephants of India Charmian was influenced by colours of India in this quilt. Hand appliquéd elephants have been combined with Kantha stitching. The quilt was completed by machine quilting 'in the ditch' and on the outer border.	135 x 85 cm
80	Meg Cowey	Unclamorous Sometimes when the world seems to be shouting, imploring attention, one needs to find a restful place – to look at something calming, something with no demands and no hidden meanings, just is. This two-sided quilt is reversible for a change of mood.	58 x 58 cm
81	Laraine Culnane	Art Laraine began this quilt as an adaptation of a photo (with the owner's permission), then added further adaptations, influenced by the styles of Andy Warhol, Pablo Picasso and Amadeo Modigliani.	114 x 86 cm
82	Dianne Firth	Floating This quilt was inspired by Japanese Zen gardens. Do you see islands surrounded by sea, rocks set in sand, or bubbles floating on water? It is made from a recycled wool blanket and is machine quilted.	90 x 106 cm

83	Helen Godden	Feathered Friends Australian birds have always been Helen's favourite subject matter, but this time she has shared her original design with over 200 other quilters, creating their own versions of this quilt through her online teaching.	130 x 130 cm
84	Fiona Hammond	Fracture Zone Fiona has played around with improvisational piecing to create this quilt. She enjoys the challenges that this process inevitably brings! She has used batiks for their vibrant colours, with touches of black and white for contrast.	137 x 123 cm
85	Lyn Keogh	Auntie Pearl's Supper Cloth This linen supper cloth was hand embroidered by Lyn's Great Auntie Pearlie Harris in the 1970s, as a gift to Lyn for her glory box. Over the years, it was used infrequently and spent its life folded up in a cupboard. Lyn has made it into a wall quilt, with free-motion quilting that enhances the original design.	104 x 104 cm
86	Lyn Keogh	Subtle Japan The lovely pale colours and hues of Japanese yarn-dyed fabrics were the inspiration for this quilt, along with the work of Yoko Saito. Lyn extended Yoko's flower motifs, adding extra elements to create a symmetrical pattern. The needle-turn appliqué is enhanced by the free-motion machine quilting designs.	128 x 128 cm
87	Noboku Miyake	Peony This quilt is a scroll made for an alcove. February is still quite cold in Japan, so Nobuko chose the flower that can feel the Spring approaching. She made it from old kimono silk purchased during her trips around Japan.	106 x 59 cm
88	Beth & Trevor Reid	Mark 1 Reading a map, the eye encounters marks used to distinguish reference points within a grid. A small charm quilt, the first in a series, each fabric used only once, has been machine pieced and machine quilted, with wool-polyester batting.	89 x 50 cm

Category 5 – Mixed Media Quilts (open)

91	Christine Gainey	This One is for Me This block of the month quilt, "Nice Things, Nice People", from Hugs and Kisses 2007, features backstitched motifs, using variegated thread, with a descriptive verse for each on the back in a variety of solid colours. Christine used a quilt-as-you-go construction, with machine quilting framing each block.	205 x 160 cm
92	Valerie Merritt	Arboretum Valerie's idea for this quilt grew from a number of workshops, particularly one undertaken to quilt maps. While this is her original design, it was based on an aerial view of the National Arboretum. Her work uses a mixture of fabrics, paints and embellishments.	45 x 35 cm
93	Beth Miller	Stairs within the Tower Beth commenced this quilt while attending a Rosalie Dace workshop, and the image was one of the many taken on a visit to London.	79 x 49 cm

Category 6 – Art Quilts (open)

94	Quilt withdrawn
95	Laraine Culnane	Four Travel Quilts In this travel quilt series, Laraine was inspired by a trip to Russia in 2007: 1. Compilation of some tourist attractions; 2. A suburban shopfront in Moscow; 3. A section of the floor in a museum in St Petersburg; and 4. A loch gate on the Svir River.	60 x 60 cm
96	Laraine Culnane	Abstract #1 – A Journey A recent acrylic-on-paper painting by Laraine was the inspiration for this quilt. While the painting took just ten minutes to complete, the quilt took considerable longer. Laraine found the construction of the quilt to be more challenging and satisfying than the painting.	126 x 84 cm
97	Anne Dickens	Four Travel Quilts – Travel Reflections Photos taken on trips to Singapore, Germany, The UK and New Zealand were the inspiration for each of Anne's four quilts. They were manipulated digitally, then printed on cotton on a domestic printer. Additional techniques include appliqué, free-motion and hand embroidery, and painting.	60 x 60 cm
98	Patrise Dowling	Four Travel Quilts – Travels with Mother Patrise has created a series of quilts depicting memories of towns she visited with her mother. She has used raw edge appliqué, embroidery, and fabrics purchased from shops while travelling. Some of the design ideas came from articles in Quilting New Zealand magazine.	126 x 126 cm
99	Helen Godden	Appreciation: Ineka Helen's muse – her daughter Ineka. A holiday photo from the dry Lake Hart. The glare from the dry desert salt pan requires sunglasses, even for a photo. Original painting of the image, after altering it in phone app, Dreamscope. A complex young woman with a very bright future.	99 x 70 cm
100	Beth Miller	Down the Rabbit Hole Inspired by Alice's Adventures in Wonderland , Beth was able to allow her imagination to run free – to create rooms within the roots of the tree where her characters could fill each space and to show Madelaine the wonders of the rabbit hole Down Under.	146 x 147 cm
101	Kerry Moir	Four Travel Quilts Kerry's four challenge travel quilts depict colourful images from Greece, Oman, Botswana and Japan, in a variety of techniques and using a variety of materials.	60 x 60 cm
102	Beth & Trevor Reid	Mark 3 Reading a map, the eye encounters marks used to distinguish reference points within a grid. The third in a series, this quilt was machine pieced, machine quilted, with wool-polyester batting and manipulated machine embroidery stitch.	78 x 79 cm
103	Kris Rollag	Under the Bridge This quilt is an exploration of 'improv' blocks and colour. Kris started with a box of scraps and made different block styles. Design was accomplished simply by moving blocks and sections around until it pleased her eye. Appliqué and stitching was added as an afterthought for interest.	138 x 110 cm

104	Kris Rollag	Sushi Kris made this quilt in response to 'get your curve on' from Improv Handbook for Modern Quilter , by Sherri Lynn Wood. She crumb-pieced the background, then let the curves develop using wedges. There was no plan for this piece, simply allowing the shapes to direct the show.	95 x 146 cm
105	Jan Smith	My Horse This quilt is an original design, pieced and quilted by Jan.	139 x 104 cm
106	Donna Sunderland	Four Travel Quilts – Travel Art Quilts Donna chose four areas of Victoria and a map of the state for this art quilt challenge.	60 x 60 cm

Category 7 – Group Quilts (open)

107	Melinda Coupland-Thorne with: Andrea Crew, Desley Ferguson, Yvonne Kilgour, Yvonne Mercer, Kath Pierce, Christine Stewart, Elaine White and Elaine Williams	Canberra Show Quilt This quilt was part of an interactive display at the Canberra Show in 2016 and 2017. More than 600 people hand-quilted a minimum of three stitches each into the quilt; the youngest was two and a half. No stitches were removed unless they were stitched around the frame, in which case the same quilter had to redo them. As they stitched, stories were shared of family members who had given them quilts. Some people stitched in both years and some families have three generations who worked on the quilt.	115 x 180 cm
108	Meg Cowey with: Janet Arndt, Ric Blagaige, Marilyn Clark-Murphy, Val Kavanagh, Julie McAllister, Helen Perlman, Sheila Pye, Susan Sheath and Phil Thomas	Go Dockers This quilt is the outcome of a 'colour wheel triad' challenge with The Quirky Quilters, where each person contributed a block. The colours chanced to match the local AFL team, hence the title. Half-square triangles were request – some people didn't read the memo!	91 x 91 cm
109	Kerry Graf with: Kath Pierce, Melinda Coupland-Thorne, Jennifer Odell, Desley Ferguson and Yvonne Kilgour	Blueberry Pop Each year, members of Kerry's friendship group set each other challenges. This challenge was to learn to weave strips and a folded/skewed block, and earned Kerry the title, "Complicated Kerry." The pattern is a variation on 'Soda Fizz', published in Downunder Quilts .	62 x 62 cm
110	Katharine Pierce with: Enid Collins, Melinda Coupland-Thorne, Desley Ferguson, Gwen Bates, Yvonne Kilgour, Pat Dunne, Kerry Graf and Vivian Licari	Scrappy Happy A challenge quilt square for Katharine's Tai Chi quilting group in sewing 1/4 -inch seams to make a Log Cabin quilt.	124 x 124 cm

112	Pamela Strickland with: Jenny Bowker, Nicole Shipway, Julie Shields, Jenny Thorack, Tracy Houston, Beryl Strusz, Karen Ceder, Alison Kime, Elizabeth Barfoed, Ann Laffan, Karen Travis, Cornelia Reppin, Helen Rose, Josie White, Patrise Dowling, Janet Gahan	Eggplant Salad garnished with Orange A group of members were given a theme and colour range to interpret and make blocks. Many were challenged and enjoyed the experience, sharing ideas and skills. A lovely project to be a part of. The quilting was done by Jenny Bowker.	188 x 227 cm
113	Wendy Whitby with: Yvonne Hawkins, Daphne Mahon, Susan Blood, Marilyn Crabb, Christine Gainey, Jocelyn Green, Kris Banks, Janet Cruise and Marcia Gilrane	It takes a Village The Material Girls friendship group decided to challenge themselves to use house blocks to form a group quilt. Each participant decided on the construction and design of her own block. The title reflects the African saying that 'it takes a village to raise a child.'	146 x 131 cm
114	Angie Wilson with: Caroline Hennessy and Raylee Bielenberg	Round We go together Angie and Carolyn hand stitched this quilt, using the English Paper Piecing method. The blocks are based on Sue Daley's pattern, 'Round We Go.' Each block is a scrappy fussy cutting adventure reflective of its maker/s. Angie, Caroline and Raylee assembled the quilt and Raylee used her amazing quilting skills to bring it to life.	187 x 191 cm

Category 8 – Commercially Quilted Quilts (open)

115	Tina Collins	Shimmy, Shimmy Tina has used the Shimmering Triangles pattern, designed by Jenny Bowker, and has made her quilt with a variety of Kaffe Fassett prints, batik and tone-on-tone fabrics. Quilted by June Ey of Bluebell A1 Quilting	198 x 198 cm
116	Jenny Cook	Ode to Gran Jenny found this pattern in Jodi Warner's book, Illustrated Guide to English Paper Piecing . It is a combination of the traditional Yankee Pride and Lover's Knot blocks that creates a lattice pattern. The quilt was hand-pieced and appliquéd and has been sensitively custom quilted by Raylee. Quilted by Raylee Bielenberg of Sunflower Quilting	257 x 210 cm

 Kathryn saw 'Arcadia Designs', by Sassafra Lane Designs and fell in love with it. The quilt took over three years to finish. The name refers to one small piecing error – can you spot it? Quilted by Wendy Watkins of Honey Pot Quilting, Bendigo
- 118 Kathryn Doyle Hailey Quilt moved to Category 1
 The inspiration for Helen's quilt came from a pattern in Karla Alexander's book, New Cuts for New Quilts. It took on a life of its own when Helen realised the fabrics she purchased were too much alike. Helpful advice from fellow quilters at drop-in Wednesday enabled her to complete her quilt in a pleasing way. Quilted by Fran Wilson of Willowpatch Quilting
 This bold design in Downunder Quilts Issue 160 caught Jenny's eye. She used mainly soft blue/grey colours to create a lightweight quilt for the warmer months. Quilted by Raylee Bielenberg of Sunflower Quilting
 This pattern is based on the double wedding ring quilt in Quick Method Classic Blue Quilts, by Leisure Arts Inc., Little Rock Arkansas, though Marie used a traditional construction method. Marie made the quilt for her younger daughter and son-in-law. It comprises 1,733 pieces and took four years to complete. Quilted by Fran Wilson of Willowpatch Quilting
- 122 Pat Godden Pat's Lucy Boston 141 x 106 cm
 The pieces for Pat's 'Lucy Boston' quilt were hand cut and hand sewn, then commercially quilted. Quilted by Raylee Bielenberg of Sunflower Quilting
 223 (plus) six-inch hexagons are the result of a USA Block-of-the-Month challenge, called Amazing Hexagons. Pat hand cut all pieces from her stash, which doesn't look depleted! The quilt top was hand sewn. Quilted by Raylee Bielenberg of Sunflower Quilting
 Katy designed and made this quilt with fabrics bought while travelling in Japan, China, Australia and America. It is quilted with fish to reflect Max's love of fishing. Quilted by Caroline Conlan of History in the Making
 This double-sided quilt was a long-term project. Katy completed the front in 2014, from a Busy Thimbles pattern, Crossing through Time, and designed and completed the pieced back in 2018. Quilted by Caroline Conlan of History in the Making
 This is a challenge quilt conceived at a CQ 'sew-in'. The design was inspired by a similar pattern seen on Missouri Quilt Co. online. The idea was to use pieces of fabric in any size or shape. Jill finished the quilt in six months. Quilted by Terina Walton of Quilts with Attitude

127 Alison Kime	Piece by Piece Alison cut up her precious yukata to make this 'improv' quilt that also includes fabric from a linen shirt, a wall hanging, an old Marimekko cushion cover and various solids for pops of colour. Quilted by Erin Barry of @QuiltbyStarlight	209 x 189 cm
128 Alison Kime	Wonky Starred Medallion Alison started this quilt in classes with Jules McMahon and used her "Quilt the Universe" pattern for the basis of the design. This has been a bold leap forward for Alison to making wonky stars and using much-loved fabric in playing around with a medallion design. Quilted by Belinda Betts of Eucalypt Ridge Quilting	222 x 189 cm
129 Margaret Rolfe	Merry Christmas Margaret was inspired by the red and white fabrics to make this quilt, which she hand pieced. Quilted by Natalie of The Quilting Bug	177 x 180 cm
130 Jennifer Reynolds	Every Which Way Jennifer made this quilt using layer cakes with contrasting strips of fabric. Quilted by June Ey of Bluebell A1 Quilting	196 x 126 cm
131 Jennifer Reynolds	Bullerswood This quilt was a block-of-the-month pattern from Barossa Quilts. It was designed by Michelle Hill. Quilted by June EY of Bluebell A1 Quilting	188 x 167 cm
132 Paulette Rigter	Around and About Hexagons This quilt was created while Paulette travelled through Thailand, Laos, Malaysia and Singapore, and bush camping in Jugiong, outback NSW and Maralinga in South Australia. What fun to swap craft stories with the local ladies while sailing down the Mekong River. Quilted by Fran Wilson of Willowpatch Quilting	217 x 170 cm
133 Kris Rollag	Non Huzzbund This improv double wedding ring quilt started with inspiration from Victoria Findlay Wolfe. Crumb-piecing from the scrap bin was utilised in piecing. The embroidery motifs are special moments and memories in the life of two internet lovers. Those secret things you say to each other or codewords you share. Quilted by Christine Fahey of Stack and Stipple, Moruya	191 x 157 cm
134 Angie Wilson	Gypsy Angie made this quilt as a way to have fun with fussy cutting and colour. It is a celebration of the fabric she loves and the traditional blocks she adores. The pattern is Jen Kingwell's 'Gypsy Wife'. Quilted by Raylee Bielenberg of Sunflower Quilting	167 x 147 cm
135 Linda Jo Wilson	Into the Woods Linda used the 'Lil Red' fabric range to make this quilt. The quilt pattern is a variation of the Jelly Roll Race, but Linda wanted to keep the fabric directional, so it took a little longer to put together and is not as random. Quilted by Chris Gould of, The Machine Quilter and Sew n Sew Sisters	212 x 150 cm
136 Linda Jo Wilson	Dream Garden Linda made this quilt from one of her favourite fabric ranges. Her dream garden would be full of flowers and green grass. The quilt is made from the pattern, 'Fat Friday' by All Washed Out. Quilted by Raylee Bielenberg of Sunflower Quilting	180 x 122 cm

137 Alison Zanchetto	Magic Carpet Ride The repeating pattern of the 'Quatro Colour' pattern by Sue Daley is evocative of the patterns on Middle Eastern carpets. Photos of the quilt taken in the wind suggested a ride on a magic carpet. The 'quatro' motif is repeated in the quilting. Quilted by Helen Smith of Altogether Quilting	223 x 153 cm
18 Pat Kenna	Stepping Stones Pat machine pieced this quilt for her daughter's new garden studio. Quilted by Raylee Bielenberg of Sunflower Quilting	223 x 225 cm
36 Maureen Tolley	Nights under Whiter Cotton Maureen made this quilt for her daughter, Natalie and her husband, Glenn. The request was for white-on-white tones and this is the outcome. Quilted by June Ey of Bluebell A1 Quilting	225 x 249 cm
39 Josie White	Portuguese Azulejos This quilt was inspired by a trip to Portugal and the visual spectacle of tiles, both inside and outside, adorning buildings. The mariner's compass acknowledges my 5-x great-grandfather, who was a Portuguese sailor. Quilted by Fran Wilson of Willowpatch Quilting	212 x 210 cm
192 Jo-Anne Micenko	Highlight of Stars in Circles The pattern for this quilt is called, 'Round We Go', and it took Jo-Anne four and a half years to sew by hand. Quilted by Julie Lorimer of The Chook Shed, Tumut	208 x 184 cm

Category 9 – Challenge Quilts (open)

138 Dell Armistead	Eternity Dell wanted to show the beauty of the sky, writing the word "Eternity" in the clouds. Using yellow chalk, Arthur Stace wrote this word, copperplates style, on Sydney pavements. In 30 years he wrote it 500,000 times. The National Museum of Australia gave Dell verbal permission to use the word in this font.	70 x 50 cm
139 Anieta Barendrecht	Home of the Blues This has been a difficult year so far, so blue houses fit well in the design. Houses were free-hand drawn, before appliqué using fusibles.	x 50 cm
140 Joanne Barraclough	Free Form Feathers Like many quilters, Joanne is a working mother who struggles to fit sewing into a busy schedule. These feathers first appeared as a doodle in a work meeting. The challenge quilt was a fun opportunity to translate the feathers from pen to thread.	70 x 50 cm
142 Ian Brown	Journey through Life Ian used blue and white diamonds to show the journey through life, with the challenges represented by the blues, offset by the opportunities of the whites. He based the design on Little Jaybird Quilts 'Giggles' pattern.	70 x 50 cm
143 Rosemary Butt	White on Blue This quilt might also be called, The only Way to get Better is to Practise . Rosemary had a lot of fun playing with circular rulers and free motion quilting ideas – and a little paint.	70 x 50 cm

144	Margaret Davies	Challenge Quilt Margaret's starting point for her blue & white challenge quilt was reflecting on Jackson Pollock's Blue Poles , while experimenting with the Boro style of stitching. This quilt contains and expresses Margaret's inner feelings of being 'poles apart' from her seriously ill son, who lives in WA.	70 x 50 cm
145	Julia Dawson	Crazy about Blue and White Julia used designs that she has wanted to sew for some time. In the hoop appliqué and embroidery designs by Molly Mine	70 x 50 cm
146	Quilt Withdrawn
147	Jenny Emerton	Snowflakes out of the Blue Jenny loves blue and loves snowflakes. This challenge allowed her to feature a snowflake shape adapted from Quilter's Newsletter magazine of Jan/Feb 1992. She also used many of her favourite blue fabrics.	70 x 50 cm
148	Louise Fredericks	Unnamed Louise's family comes from The Netherlands, so she has used the theme and her love of Delft Blue china to create this quilt.	50 x 70 cm
149	Kerry Graf	Flu Blues Based on a sketch for a 1970s art class, this quilt explores the emotional impact of having the flu. Kerry used shades of blue and white to echo the depression shown on the subject's face.	70 x 50 cm
150	Wendy Hirst	Boro Sampler Wendy's Boro Sampler incorporates numerous scraps of blue and white Japanese fabrics, patched together using Sashiko, a form of decorative reinforcing stitching. She used white and indigo threads throughout.	71 x 50 cm
151	Quilt withdrawn
152	Beverley Kavanagh	Quilt moved to Category 3
153	Barbara Kennedy	White Trees 'White Trees' uses appliqué and boro-stitch embroidery, and is machine quilted. The motifs are stitched on fabric from old denim jeans, as Barbara is conscious of the huge amounts of clothing that are sent to landfill. Barbara's original design concept was inspired by the National Arboretum.	50 x 70 cm
154	Lyn Keogh	Blue and White Delft Plate This quilt was inspired by an original Delft plate given to Lyn by Dutch friends as a thank you for allowing their daughter to live with her family for a short period of time. It is a whole cloth quilt with free-motion quilting outlining the original plate design.	50 x 70 cm
155	Quilt withdrawn
156	Andrea McMillan	I am Blue, but I will be all White The last few years have been rather...interesting...for Andrea – long story involving work-related stress, time off, medical and other issues. This quilt represents her journey from the confusion of poor mental health to greater insight, self-acceptance and recovery.	70 x 50 cm

157	Valerie Merritt	There is Life beyond Blue Valerie developed her challenge idea after hearing of so many women suffering depression and anxiety, and the enormous role organisations such as Canberra Quilters play in mitigating the effects.	70 x 50 cm
158	Anne Meuronen	Quilt moved to Category 3
159	Robyn Oats	The Blue Wren Robyn created the blue wren with indigo dyed stitched Shibori, then added Japanese fabrics in boro-style.	70 x 50 cm
160	Pat Parker	Into the Depths This quilt was inspired by a whale-watching experience. Pat has chosen to capture the last glimpse of the whale as it descends gracefully into the depths of the ocean, represented by layers of blue fabric.	70 x 50 cm
161	Merrie Pepper	Oblique Ombre Oblique Ombre shows a Modern Quilt vision of the challenge, 'Blue & White'. Merrie has pieced a trio of slashed blocks, grading from dark blue to white, all on the oblique.	70 x 50 cm
162	Kay Provins	Don't forget Red Can you have white and blue on their own? What about red? Don't forget Red. So, Kay thought she would add a little bit of red. Can you find it?	70 x 50 cm
163	Colleen Reed	Tint, Tone, Shade, Simply Delft Of Dutch origin with techniques and design of Asian influence, Delft ware persisted from around 1650 to the mid-18 th Century. This quilt combines designs of flowers and cranes typically used in many combinations. Several shades of blue were used and oversewn to give shading.	50 x 70 cm
164	Beth & Trevor Reid	Delft Collecting blue and white china is a popular trend. Delft porcelain is one of the better-known makers and this quilt is an abstracted interpretation of their well-known designs. It was machine quilted and has wool-polyester batting.	70 x 50 cm
165	Quilt withdrawn
166	Julie Ricketts	Early Morning Inspired by the Japanese fabrics and an early morning wake-up, this quilt just popped into Julie's head. It is machine and hand stitched. Hand stitching the Sashiko was very relaxing.	70 x 50 cm
167	Helen Rose	Moorish Blues The intense blues of the Moorish tile designs seen on visits to Cordoba, Seville and Grenada inspired Helen for this blue and white quilt. It is also based on photos taken by Alan Rose on a recent trip to Uzbekistan.	70 x 50 cm
168	Elizabeth Rose	Garden Sampler Elizabeth has used the cyanotype process to create images of flowers and leaves.	70 x 50 cm
169	Wendy Saclier	A Patchwork Stitched Alphabet A love of blue and white quilts, fabrics and all things related to stitching, as well as a love of language provided Wendy with the opportunity to do an alphabet quilt.	70 x 50 cm
170	Donna Sunderland	Quilt moved to Category 3

191 Jakki Cashman True Blue 50 x 70 cm
 Blue is a quintessentially Australian word: it can refer to a shearer, a gingernut, a cattle dog, a bust-up outside a pub, or a swag. What is true Blue? I it me and you? Is it standing by your mates?

Category 10 – Tiny Treasure Quilts (open)

172 Rosemary Butt Weedy Sea Dragon 30 x 30 cm
 Rosemary created an appliqué design for Weedy when she first met one some years ago, but has never found the right fabric. Her eyes were opened by Helen Godden's 'Flying into Colour' workshop – painted, stitched and painted some more.

173 Patrise Dowling The Lighthouse Keeper's Wife 15 x 15 cm
 Life in bleak, wild landscapes conjures up unreal images of everyday domestic chores.

174 Quilt withdrawn

175 Colleen Reed Life's Meaning 33 x 33 cm
 Colleen was inspired by an ancient design. Story has it that Blue Willow design with central path, pavilion and bridge over water holds life-giving opportunities throughout life's journeys. The quilt is machine embroidered, with elements of a design by Stitch and a Half Designs.

176 Beth & Trevor Reid Mark 2 20 x 20 cm
 Reading a map, the eye encounters marks used to distinguish reference points within a grid. This quilt is part of a series. It was machine pieced and machine quilted, with wool-polyester batting.

177 Julie Ricketts Emerald Star 33 x 34 cm
 Julie made a sample block to teach herself how to do seams.

178 Wendy Saclier CelebRATion 31 x 31 cm
 Wendy's granddaughter requested a hanging featuring the year she was born – the year of the Rat. There was a proviso – "Can you make them look more like mice?"

Category 11 – Creative Clothing (open)

179 Anne Laffan Boro Jacket Vest
 Anne made this vest using Jane Macdonald's 'Boro Time' pattern from Homespun magazine, Issue 166, from March 2017. The fabrics grew in Anne's stash over several years.

180 Wendy Saclier Soccer Mum's Spectator Coat Coat
 Wendy has designed this coat to keep Mum cosy in polar fleece on freezing Canberra soccer mornings. As well, it will be easy for her budding Socceroo to identify her in the crowd. Piecing, appliqué and stitching are an original design, while the coat pattern was adapted from an existing coat.

181 Donna Sunderland Come Fly with Me Coat
 This denim coat was inspired by a picture in Dressed Best, 1997, by Maggie Walker. Free motion quilting with variegated thread.

Category 15 –Quilts by Children (primary school)

182	Annabella McNamara	My Life's Adventure Annabella has used photos to tell the story of her life before she goes to high school next year.	116 x 106 cm
183	Nicholas Meszes	Nick's Rainbow Nicholas selected the pattern for his first quilt from Quick Colourful Quilts , by Rosemary Wilkinson. He chose bright batik fabrics, which he sewed together and quilted, with some help from his grandmother, Karen. He also selected the binding, which really pops. Nicholas made the quilt to snuggle under while reading or watching TV.	185 x 136 cm
184	Lillian Neave	Lily's Quilt Five-inch squares, hand and machine pieced by Lily, under her Nan's guidance. This is her first quilt, finished when she was nine years old.	160 x 117 cm
185	Amy Reid	Fluffy With guidance and a little help from Grandma, Amy brought her vision of a unicorn quilt to life. From design through to finishing touches, Amy built on her sewing skills, learning appliqué, machine quilting, hand sewing, gem application and embellishment. She is extremely pleased with her efforts.	89 x 88 cm
186	Lucy Reid	Chickens Lucy's love of her pet chickens inspired her to design this chicken life cycle quilt. With guidance from Grandma, Lucy improved her sewing skills, added appliqué, free motion quilting, hand sewing buttons and binding to her repertoire. She is most proud of her quilting.	73 x 73 cm
187	Claire Sterland	My First Quilt Claire started sewing when she was three. She started her first quilt when she was 3½. She enjoys hand sewing and started machine sewing when she was four. Claire has completed several small projects, but this is her first quilt.	42 x 49 cm
188	Dakota Thorne	Fox Tracks Dakota saw this kit in a package of panel quilt sets purchased to improve Mum's free motion quilting and said, "This one's for me." Made from Keepsake Quilting Wilderness kit, Fox and Tracks, designed by Kari Nicholson	123 x 125 cm

Category 16 –Quilts by Youths (secondary school)

189	Matthew Bielenberg	Quiver Matthew made this quilt in 2017 for a Year 6 spring project, using a Bernina machine won at the Canberra Quilters Annual Exhibition. Made from Elizabeth Hartman's pattern, 'Pointy'	197 x 165 cm
